New Series of Anti-deception publicity videos –
“Escape from Scams” launched by the Police

The Anti-Deception Coordination Centre of the Hong Kong Police Force has launched a new series of publicity videos recently, which consists of three episodes on the theme of “Escape from Scams”.

Chiyu Bank reminds customers that they shall remain vigilant against scams at all times and exercise circumspection in their financial dealings. Do not visit suspicious websites and disclose any personal information, including identity card number, residential address, online banking user name and password, verification code and credit card information, to strangers. If in doubt, customers may enter the suspicious information on “Scameter” or “Scameter+”, the mobile app of “Scameter”, for security check.

Please refer to the following website for the publicity videos and learn more about Police anti-deception information:
