Don't be tempted by quick money

Don't sell your account

Through telemarketing or social media platforms, criminal syndicates would offer the benefit of making quick money and lure customers into selling or lending their bank accounts, or use customers' personal credentials to open bank accounts. The syndicate will then use these 'stooge accounts' to collect and launder fraudulent payments or other crime proceeds.

Customers not to sell or lend their accounts to others as these may be abused for unlawful purposes and you may expose yourself to the risk of committing money laundering offences of which the maximum penalty is imprisonment for 14 years and a fine of HK$5 million.
